Project name: Mixed Souls

Description: Mixed Souls is a story driven parkour puzzle game which the player plays as a women who died long ago woke up in the body of a man inside a facility. Lucy Heimway is a women who died in 2029. Her body disappeared from the more the night she got killed. 52 years later she woke up inside the facility in a body she didn't know and a surrounding she has never seen in her life.

Features we want to add: We want to add 2 more rooms with different kinds of puzzles and different parkour mechanics. More detailed assets and story improvement. We also want to polish the assets we already have
